OFF The BEATEN PATH

— Since 1986 —

DEAR FRIEND ...

It is that thrilling time of year when we get to introduce our annual Journeys catalog and share the latest round of wondrous OBP experiences to some of the most inspiring and beautiful landscapes in the world.

As much as ever, travel has emerged as essential to our well-being. No different than exercise or reading or reflection or nourishment, travel sustains us and makes us strong. Out-of-the-ordinary encounters delight our senses which, in turn, remind us of the importance of our existence.

When done correctly, travel compels us to develop a sense of place and in this process, we often find something new about ourselves. Consecutive days of hiking or active engagement while traveling may inspire more of the same when you return home. A cultural connection when exploring a new landscape opens your eyes to a different way of thinking that measurably alters your approach to life.

Across a grand spectrum, the best travels change us in good ways, making us feel better about ourselves, our world, and how the two can best interact. Each time we travel, we've done something incredibly beneficial for ourselves.

This year, our Journeys catalog inspires all of us to reconnect to the great and essential benefits of travel. I hope there are many things that strike a cord and inspire you to do something good for yourself — to travel! And when inspiration strikes, our whole team will be ready and waiting for your call.

Wishing you the very best in travel and life,

Cory T. Lawrence, President & CEO

Zoom Out ...

Zoom, YouTube, Netflix — the time of living inside a screen is over.

Getting our faces out of that cold, blue glow and into the sun's wholesome radiance is where and how we'll find real focus again.

And travel? It offers not just the chance to zoom out and see the bigger picture, but also the perfect vehicle to venture headlong back into the real world.

(RE) CONNECT

OFF THE BEATEN PATH

You stretch out your fingers, finding a new connection to the natural world.

You're present in the moment — but this time there's electricity in your senses. Colors are a little richer, birds are a bit more chatty, and the promise of this day is elevated; sanguine and filled with anticipation.

To varying degrees, we're all finding ourselves just now comprehending how many important things we've taken for granted over the past few years. Simple things, like handshakes and hugs, and the stunning power of smiles unmasked. Bigger things, too, like saddling a horse for a morning alpine ride or getting out of the workaday and into our world; where curiosity about a small shop in a new place opens a door — and your heart.

It's a wondrous time! Without tether or tie, we can reconnect with the enduring, ever-yielding value of travel. As exciting, we can do it together, sharing the enthusiasm, meaning, and joy with each other. Memories are always more precious when made with those we love, and travel only magnifies this significance.

Losing ourselves in a vibrant, pulsating South American market; listening, eyes closed, to the misty hiss of a Hawaiian waterfall; sharing stories with long-time and newfound friends alike — these are the moments our souls have been craving.

As we reconnect — with our world, each other, ourselves, and travel, on whole — we are immediately contented. Something new is now ours to enjoy, something remarkable has just happened, and everything seems right in the world.

Although admittedly biased on the concept, we feel the essential value of travel is most reliably found off the beaten path.

Join us this year — at the confluence of journey and destination, where the heart of the traveler meets the soul of the place.

LET'S (RE)TURN TO TRAVEL.

Why Now, Why Off the Beaten Path

Remember when there was no internet, and trying to find the best places to go relied on possibly outdated books and suggestions from your niece who studied abroad? We do. And what's funny is that, even with all the Google Reviews and Top Ten lists out there on the Web, finding the most authentic and perfect (for you) travel experiences still takes plenty of effort — and we know that your time is your most valuable resource.

Well, we've been there, done that, found the better route, talked to the local proprietor, cemented relationships, hiked the hard-to-find trail, and sampled the coffee (both regular and decaf) — all so any 'unknowns' you experience will be only those serendipitous ones that define a fantastic trip.

A number of years ago, Conde Nast Traveler referred to us as the world's "travel shrink". We are eager to understand you - and then use our deep understanding of place to create a bespoke experience that truly connects you to the landscapes you explore. It's serious and important business to us. Why? Because travel is so important — so essential — to a life well lived.

“ It's hard to identify one element that was less spectacular than the others. We had a fabulous time and made wonderful friends.

Distinctive Lodging and Proprietors

There's no doubt that Off the Beaten Path trips are all about the outdoors — after all, our name conjures up visions of venturing down the trail less-traveled. But, after a day spent exploring and collecting a few dozen not-too-soon-forgotten memories, coming home to local accommodations that are equally appealing and noteworthy, well that's nice, too. Sometimes, it makes all the difference.

We believe the ideal trip doesn't have to sacrifice great food and a pillow fluffed to your liking in order to deliver a superb outdoor-focused journey. We prioritize a combination of comfort and strategy, staying at the most distinctive accommodations that work best for our itineraries. Sometimes, that's a world-class hotel, but more often it's the locally-owned boutique lodge in the perfect location, or the luxury camp with easy access to wildlife viewing, or a small inn near the place that serves the best "under the bell" peka meal (see Croatia, page 68) or most authentic asado (see Argentina, page 64).

Your lodging will immerse you in the culture and history surrounding you. These are the places that become your home away from home — and that you'll go home talking about.

“ You really did what you promised:
found us the perfect places to stay...
that we would not have been able to find. You really listened!!

Exceptional Guides

Guides are interpreters in the broadest sense of the word. They translate years of experience and expertise into language and concepts that the rest of us can understand, no matter our foreknowledge of a given subject. They look at their surroundings through a lens that is more finely-focused than ours and are always flipping between the obvious and obscure in search of new knowledge and nuggets of nuance to share with those of us who arrive wide-eyed and inquisitive. Connecting you to your surroundings is paramount.

The job of an Off the Beaten Path guide is to do all of this, while seamlessly maintaining a sense of fun and adventure along the way. Even if they've seen a hundred wolves, they will share in the delight of your first sighting and celebrate that sense of curiosity and wonder. It's this combination of proficiency and conviviality that is the hallmark of the OBP guide, and, in turn, an invaluable part of every guided experience we offer.

“Great, great guides! I can't say enough good things about them! They were the ultimate guides! I think most of us learned many things, and didn't even know we were in a 'classroom'!

Authentic, localized, out-of-the-ordinary experiences

Expectations — knowing what to expect can make a good thing great, right?

But in the context of travel, aren't surprise and delight part of the goal?

If every moment is scripted, how does one come away thinking, wow, that was truly mind-blowing?

We have spent decades unearthing the unique, circumnavigating the ordinary, and crafting the kinds of rich experiences that qualify as once-in-a-lifetime. We're all about staying away from the crowds, so we keep our trips small and agile. If you're coming with us to Yellowstone National Park, yes, you're going to want to see Old Faithful — but we're often able to pivot and adjust minute-by-minute at popular sites to help you forget about everyone else so you can focus on collecting memories that are uniquely your own. With every custom itinerary we craft, we stay true to the unmistakable disposition reflected in our company name.

Off the beaten path is so many things. At its heart, however, is surprise, delight, serendipity. Something for everyone, on whole, and yet, intensely just for you and your traveling companions.

“ Without a doubt one of the best trips we ever took with a travel company. Well organized and planned. Excellent places to stay and things to see and do. A surprise at every turn. Remarkable.

(RE)AFFIRM

Stewardship of places; respect for people and their heritage

Alaska, Costa Rica, Africa; we find beauty in so many places. But it's the people who are living within them that transform scenic landscapes into something so much more enchanting. People who have made the landscape home and serve as proud stewards of a heritage that is theirs to share. As travelers, it's easy to become onlookers. Our goal is to heighten your curiosity, open you up to connection and then, to create understanding and genuine care for cultures and environments encountered while traveling. At this point of convergence — curiosity, openness, and connection — travel takes on new meaning and the traveler is lifted, enriched, changed.

When we lead you out to sink yourself into these fascinating places, it's our self-imposed obligation to act as stewards of each location we visit. Every destination has its own unique story and character. Understanding the heritage of each town or souk or village we visit is critical in painting the complete picture of any travel experience, from our own backyard to the far reaches of the globe.

If, in this exploration of what is real and true, our travelers are inspired to join us in protecting the people and places that make our world special, we will have achieved our highest purpose.

As much as anything, stewardship and friendly support of the landscapes we hold dear is the reason why we're here.

“ Very knowledgeable, interesting, open-minded, great cultural perspectives in each of the places
we explored. Above and beyond.

Small Group Adventures

EXCEPTIONAL TRIPS FOR CURIOUS TRAVELERS

Come see the ‘real world’ in a way that is uniquely convenient and adventurous, all at the same time. Immerse yourself in new places, see jaw-dropping landscapes and wildlife, and learn about local culture from sage guides who are with you every step of the way — all with a limited number of fellow travelers who share your passion for exploration.

Small Group Size, Guaranteed

Most trips run with a minimum of two guests, and cap at 12 to 16 participants. This ensures the undivided attention of your guides and makes for plenty of room in the vans. The small group size also allows flexibility to shift gears based on personal interests, and opens the way to spontaneity when unexpected opportunities arise. Our minimal group size maximizes your personal experience.

Stellar Guides

Your guides are experts in the plants, wildlife, and history of your destination, and they know which trail is best for any condition and season. But they also have an uncanny knack for enhancing your journey in sometimes profound ways. They genuinely care about the content and quality of your trip and want you to love these special places as much as they do.

Creative, Curated Itineraries

Each day is a tapestry of well-paced delight, as you hike, float, learn about cultural traditions, stop in at interesting galleries and unique museums, savor regional cuisine, and take every opportunity to slip into the local scene. Logistics are engineered to minimize drive time and avoid peak crowds at must-see landmarks like Delicate Arch in Arches National Park and the Mariposa Grove of giant sequoias in Yosemite.

Distinctive Accommodations

The quest for sense-of-place connection lies at the heart of OBP trips, and that includes your accommodations. You'll stay in adobe haciendas, seaside inns, remote wilderness lodges, historic national park hotels, eco retreats, boutique tipis, and sweet cabins. And on some trips you might stay in a mom-and-pop motel in the middle of nowhere because the middle of nowhere is just fifteen minutes away from the exact somewhere you've come so far to see.

WE'RE HERE WHEN YOU'RE READY TO (RE)EXPLORE.

Reserve any fully guided OBP Small Group Adventure exclusively for your own family or group of friends. Talk to a Travel Advisor for details at 800-445-2995.

DESIGNED JUST FOR YOU

How it Works

It's easy! First, we chat about where you want to go, what sorts of things interest you, how active you'd like to be, and what particular goals or special needs you'd like us to factor in. Then your expert Travel Planner develops a trip proposal packed with suggestions for activities, lodgings, and other essential elements. We also include recommendations for select guided experiences. Exploring with a local guide heightens your adventure and can deepen your journey in unexpected and unforgettable ways. You will learn a lot about your destination just through this process! After you review the proposal and we've adjusted the plan to your satisfaction, we manage all the details — locking in your reservations and making any other necessary arrangements.

Your Personal Journey Guidebook

We send you off with a Journey Guidebook detailing each day's itinerary, including details about the reservations we've managed for you, meeting times, contact information, and driving directions, if you're driving. The guidebook also includes a wealth of additional information, including trail descriptions, travel tips, notes on natural and cultural history, lists of fun galleries and shops, and ideas on where to find the best local fare. It's like a having a friend in the back seat, opening the door to special OBP moments along the way.

Savor your Time

At a certain point in our lives, we realize that the thing we place the most value in is time. Working with our expert Travel Planners, you can shortcut all the research and circumnavigate the missteps, and instead focus on the aspects of your trip that will make you, your family, or your group love every minute of it. Your Planner's mission is to pair you with the ideal lodge, help you compare and contrast the best hiking trails, and provide the kind of insider info that will delight your fellow travelers. Your return on this kind of investment will never be forgotten and is measured in multiples of the actual dollars spent.

Off the Beaten Path started out in 1986 as a scrappy little company planning custom trips to the American West. More than three decades later we're not so little anymore, and our geography has greatly expanded.

With our long experience, deep local knowledge, and trusted connections to guides and hosts along the way, your trip will hit the proverbial home run. No other company will offer you better, more personalized travel advice or be more attentive to your needs when it comes to designing your private trip.

Responsible Travel

RESPECT FOR THE WILD PLACES WE LOVE

With travel comes great responsibility. As lovers of this planet and the extraordinary people, places, and cultures that call it home, we are extremely conscious of the fact that our travels have an impact. Each step out into an alpine meadow, each quickly snapped photo of a wild animal, and every mile traveled by plane, boat, car, or train to our next destination — all of these actions create change, even if sometimes in seemingly small increments.

In step with our core values, Off the Beaten Path joins a cadre of other like-minded travel companies in a commitment to minimizing our impact on the human and natural world. We're adopting new processes and strategies designed to make us great stewards of our world — not just for how we travel, but also for how we work within our offices.

We continue to work closely with sustainability partners to better understand how we can reduce or eliminate emissions and employ carbon offsets in order to be greater caretakers of the places we visit. Currently, we are offsetting emissions on our Small Group Adventures, and in 2023 we will offset all trips as well as our office operations to make our overall efforts carbon neutral.

Off the Beaten Path; our name is, by definition, an invitation to step outside of the known, to immerse oneself in nature, to become truly part of the world around us. Our goal is to tread lightly as we journey with you, as we celebrate your curiosity, as we all learn together how to love our planet even more.

Off the Beaten Path is proud to be a founding member of the Adventure Collection.
This alliance of pioneering, highly respected travel companies is dedicated to sustainable, responsible travel practices that respect human and natural communities.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS

In the event that OBP cancels your travel for reasons other than acts of insurrection, strikes, acts of God or nature, government restriction, or any other cause beyond the control of OBP, you will be refunded the entire amount that has been paid to that point, and OBP will pay for any change fees associated with airline tickets that you have purchased related to the trip. Refunds are based upon the date of receipt of written notice (mail, e-mail, or facsimile) and will be subject to the following cancellation fees as well as any additional fees associated with non-refundable advance payments made on your behalf related to your trip.
